

ELQI Summer 2024 Professional Learning Opportunities

The ELQI and Travelling Tales Libraries will be open throughout the summer as seen on the calendars on the next page. You are invited to come visit the library during any of the open hours to browse and borrow resources and explore the materials set up for you to engage with. I will be available to chat with you about upcoming professional learning opportunities, topics you are interested in learning more about or looking for resources to support, as well as being available to support you with getting subscribed to and navigating the blog, following us on Facebook and Instagram, and registering as a Librarika member. No registration is needed to stop to visit the library; drop in any time during the open hours.

Registration is required for the Travelling Tales Book Studies and the Library Special Activities offered throughout July and August. More details about each of the Library Special Activities can be found in the registration link.

Space is limited for the Library Special Activities. Late registrations can be accommodated if there is space and materials available.

Whenever visiting our office (CLTH Lindsay office: 205 McLaughlin Road), please remember it is a scent sensitive building. Thank you for being as fragrant free as possible to help create a safe and accessible environment for everyone.

There is also a scent allergy to cinnamon and all citrus. Please do not bring or use anything with these scents prior to visiting our office that contain these scents (such as: food, drinks, candy/gum, scented lotions/hand sanitizer, essential oils, etc.).
