January's invitations will offer opportunities to look at how we share books and stories with children. There will be materials available to make some props. There will also be materials available to start a 2025 vision board or BINGO card.

*Any changes needed will be shared to the blog post with updated dates/times; short notice change of plans will be shared on the blog and social media.

Did you know? Visiting the library can support your professional learning! When you are planning to visit any of the library open times, you can email me beforehand if there is a specific topic you would like to discuss more. I can gather some relevant materials to discuss things together; others visiting the library at the time will be invited to join the conversation.

When visiting the library, in addition to browsing the materials available to borrow, you can also explore the invitation(s) set up and look at any additional resources to support the month's focus.

*Please know any materials from the library inventory used in an invitation will be available to borrow once the invitation is complete.
